Dear Mr. Wilkinson:

Thank you very much for the frankness of your letter of the 17th.

I have just heard from Sidney Kaufman, of whom I spoke to you. You had not heard from him because his necessities changed and he is still in England. I have written him about you. In England he gave a copy of the manuscript to Baronnss Maura Budberg, an agent of whom he has a high opininn. Her address is 211 Cromwell Road, London SW3. After reading and liking it, she gave it to a publisher from whom she was expecting to hear about the end of last week. I have also written her, telling her of your letter and giving her your address. If she writes me instead ofyyou - I don't know how these things work - I'll inform younimmediately.

I am working on the story of our moving to the country,

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
